The Fifth Sunday after Trinity

Almighty and everlasting God, by whose Spirit the whole body of the Church is governed and sanctified:

hear our prayer which we offer for all your faithful people, that in their vocation and ministry through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Recognising children and youth ministry in our church

Recognise is a week to give thanks for everyone involved in ministry with children, young people, and their families.

In particular, we thank Kim and John Curle for their ministry to Cudham and Downe Primary Schools and to Denise Angell, Karen Lockley, Kim, Bridget Law and Kate Brignall who lead and help at Sunday Club at Cudham Church and to everyone involved in running Messy Church for both churches throughout the year. We also give thanks for all the children and their families who attend our churches!

The Summer Tea Party hosted by Cudham Primary School last Monday was a great success. The children entered the spirit of the occasion exceptionally well, engaging with the guests from the local community and in offering hospitality, and entertaining everyone so joyfully with their singing and musical production. The Deputy Mayor of Bromley, the Head Teacher and all the guests found the whole occasion very inspiring and a credit to the school. John & Kim Curle on behalf of the Pastoral Team.
