The Nineteenth Sunday after Trinity

O God, forasmuch as without you we are not able to please you; mercifully grant that your Holy Spirit may in all things direct and rule our hearts; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Sight Loss Sunday is an annual event organized by Torch Trust to help churches and communities recognize and support people who are blind or partially sighted. It provides an opportunity to celebrate the gifts and calling of individuals with sight loss, encourage inclusion, and reflect on spiritual themes related to faith and service. More information can be found on their website - <https://www.torchtrust.org/>
