All Welcome at the Cudham Coronation Celebration event – Sunday 7th May

The Church, Pub and Community are coming together to celebrate the Coronation of King Charles III.

The day begins at 10.30am with a special United All-Age Celebration Service of Holy Communion and continues with an organ Recital by our regular organists, followed by the Big Lunch and games on the Rec; and, in the churchyard Messy Church creative activities for children and families, including making a King's Crown and other Coronation crafts, a 'King's Coronation Activity Trail', 'Teas-on-the-Tombs'; 'Ring for the King' on the church bells; a Children's Tea Party and traditional games, plus the XBY (Ex-Bromley Youth Wind Band) in concert at the Blacksmith's Arms, and later, DJ with popular music, and the King's Coronation Concert on the big screen to entertain 'till late.

Do prayerfully consider if you could help in any way. Or simply come and join the celebrations for a special day of friendship and fun as Cudham Village and Church mark the Coronation of King Charles III.
